

PERSONALS.

Colonel and Mrs. F. W. Dunn and Mrs. S. H. Black have taken apartments at the Arlington, 415 First avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence G. Barron are now at home in No. 2 Oak apartments.

Miss Afton Young will return next Saturday from a month's visit in New York.

Mrs. Gustave Billings of Cincinnati is spending a week in Salt Lake as the guest of Mrs. Justus Jungk.

Mrs. Minnie Thompson and Mrs. Curtis Warren returned Thursday from a short visit in Pioche, Nev.

Mrs. F. L. Higbee of Longmont, Colo., is visiting her niece, Mary Frances Sanborn, at her apartment in the Cannings.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Weinberg and son, Laurence, formerly of Denver and Aspen, Colo., are now at 822 East First south street.

Mrs. F. C. Richmond, who accompanied her daughters, the Misses Margaret and Gladys Richmond, to Boston early in September, is expected home this evening.

Mrs. D. W. Hamlin, who has been the guest of her mother, Mrs. Prescott Hampton, for about three months, will leave Thursday for Los Angeles, accompanied by her little daughter, Miss Glenn Hamlin.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Jackling returned home Saturday morning after a two weeks' visit in Arizona and southern California.

Mrs. Hazel Taylor Peery of Ogden spent a few days in Salt Lake during the week as the guest of Mrs. Joseph Nibley.

Rev. and Mrs. Bullis of Evanston, Wyo., are visiting their daughter.

The CHARLTON SHOP

Women's Outfitters Exclusively.
EXCLUSIVE

Tailor Made Suits,
Coats, Gowns,
Evening Wraps,
at Moderate Prices.

122 So. Main Salt Lake

Miss Lucy Bullis, who is a student at Rowland Hall.

Miss Helen Dougherty, who has been visiting in Nebraska for the last five months, is expected home Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cole of Bellevue, Mich., and their daughter, Mrs. R. D. Spaulding of Battle Creek, Mich., are guests of Mrs. Cole's sister, Mrs. A. Lane, in South Third East street.

Miss Rosemary Glosz is a guest at the home of her mother, Mrs. I. C. Glosz, for a few days, having come to Salt Lake to attend the funeral of her grandfather, Mr. Mehesy. Mrs. Elizabeth Mehesy arrived in Salt Lake Saturday from Long Beach, Cal., and will remain with Mrs. Glosz indefinitely.

Edgar Havens left last Monday for Kansas City, where he will make his future home, having accepted a position in Kansas City.

Mrs. Fred Knudsen and Mrs. B. A. Stewart have as their guest Miss Maude Bailey of Buckhannon, W. Va.

Charles D. Osborne left for Pioche, Nev., Thursday, and will remain in Nevada until after the holidays.

Miss Sarah Spaulding will return from Colorado Thursday, and will be at home at Rowland Hall for a short time.

Bishop Franklin S. Spaulding will return to Salt Lake about the middle of November.

Mrs. J. L. Kiser and Miss Jeanette Kiser left yesterday for their home in Davenport, Ia., after a pleasant visit at the home of Mrs. F. L. Dodge in Third avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard A. Keyes had as their guest during the week their cousin, Frank Keyes of San Francisco, who stopped in Salt Lake on his way to New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Bassett will be at home after Nov. 1 at No. 3 Kenwood apartments.

Mrs. Scott, who has been the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Le Grand Young, Jr., for about a month, left Saturday night for her home in Armstead, Mont.

Miss Lemmette Wright will leave Wednesday for her home in Carroton, Ia., after a three week's visit with Mrs. W. W. Armstrong of the Stauffer apartments.

Miss Maude Miller of Stanford university, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Miller, will pass through Salt Lake tomorrow on her way to Baldwin, Kan., where she will be one of the delegates to the Delta sorority convention, to be held there this week.

H. K. Klingender will leave Monday

Mrs. Clara
Howard
Stephenson

HATS

1123 Boston Bldg.

Take elevator to top floor and turn to left.

NEW BOOKS ADDED TO PUBLIC LIBRARY

The following twenty-eight volumes will be added to the public library Monday morning, Oct. 25, 1909.

Miscellaneous.

Brown—Scientific Nutrition Simplified.
Calisch—Jew in English Literature.
Cheyney—Readings in English History.
Conn—Living Machine.
Cross—Life and Times of Lawrence Sterne.

Devine—Misery and its Causes.
Faith—Moon in Modern Astronomy.
Gibson—How Telegraphs and Telephones Work.

Holman—Dr. John McLoughlin.
Hutchinson—Food and Dietetics.
National Civic Federation Report, 3 vols.

Price—Irrigated Lands of the United States, Mexico and Canada.
Shaler—Autobiography.
Stead—How I Know That the Dead Return.

Wilkinson—Story of the Cotton Plant.
Fiction.
Beach—Silver Horde.
Castle—Diamond Cut Paste.
Garland—Mosses of a March.
Montgomery—Anne of Avonlea.
Page—John Marvel, Assistant.

Children's Books.

Elson—School History of the United States.
Lang—Pink Fairy Book.
Murrice—Story of Old Fort Loudon.
Sabin—Bar B Boys.
Targant—Six Girls and the Seventh One.
Yates—Chat.

for New York, where he goes to meet Mrs. Klingender's mother, Mrs. Susanah Riddell, on her arrival from Europe next Sunday. Mrs. Riddell has spent five months in the different countries of Europe, and will spend several weeks in the east before returning to Salt Lake.

Miss Ethel Shepherd of Logan has been a Salt Lake visitor for a few days.
Miss Estelle Clinton has returned from a tour of Seattle and the north-west, having been away about three months. Miss Clinton also visited in Boise, Ida., as the guest of her brother, James C. Clinton.

Rev. Calladay and family will make their home at Rowland Hall for a short time before locating at the deanery of St. Mark's cathedral.

Bishop and Mrs. Benjamin Brewster arrived in Salt Lake Saturday and will be guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Walcott Thompson until after the Morrison-Overfield wedding on Wednesday.

Miss Eleanor Rogerson arrived in the city Monday from her home in Minneapolis, and will visit here for some time as the guest of Miss Kendall Francke in the Cummings apartments.

Miss Mildred Lowell will leave today for her home in Chicago, after a pleasant visit of three weeks with Mrs. H. K. Klingender of the Halls hotel.

Mrs. Phillip Moore of St. Louis, who is the president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, is a guest of Mrs. Salt Lake on Wednesday and Tuesday of this week, and will be the guest of Mrs. George Hancock during her stay here.

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Campbell will leave tomorrow for their home in Georgia, after a visit of several days in Salt Lake as the guest of Mrs. Campbell's sister, Mrs. George M. Bacon. Mr. Campbell is considered an authority on mountain life in the south, and on Saturday evening gave a delightful talk to a number of friends at the home of Mrs. Bacon.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor E. Lollin are now at home at No. 4 in the New Arlington apartments, No. 415 First avenue.

Mrs. F. D. Hobbs and Miss Edith Hobbs are now at home at No. 306 East South street.

Major and Mrs. William Purviance will leave for Salt Lake, Nov. 1, and will sail for the Philippines Nov. 5.

Mr. and Mrs. George A. Varis returned Sunday from their wedding trip, and are now at home in the Nelson apartments.

Miss Emily Reazin, cousin of Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Robinson, left for San Francisco yesterday. She will remain there three weeks, when she sails for her home in Australia.

WOMEN'S CLUBS.

The Bay View Reading club will meet Monday, Oct. 25, at the home of Mrs. J. J. Buswell, 1115 Third avenue.

The Woman's club will hold a meeting Tuesday, Oct. 26, at the home of Mrs. A. T. Sanford in the Virginia apartments. Mrs. C. H. Blanchard will read a paper on "Dante."

The Wasatch Literary circle met last Tuesday with Mrs. S. C. Dallas at her home on Tenth East street. After the reports from the recent meeting of the state federation, two papers were given, "Alaska," by Mrs. Earl Dunshee, and "Paris," by Mrs. Dallas, the latter being illustrated by stereopticon views.

A musical and reception will be given by the Ladies' Literary club in honor of Mrs. Philip N. Moore of St. Louis, president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs. This will be held Oct. 26, at 2 o'clock, in the Ladies' Literary club rooms, and will take the place of the regular meeting of the club, which was to have been held Friday, Oct. 26. A prompt attendance is desired. The program will be in charge of the music section, and an international program of music and poetry will be given.

The next meeting of the poet section of the Ladies' Literary club will be held at the home of Mrs. Oscar Cox in Wall street, on Monday, Nov. 8. The section will continue the study of Shelley's "Ode."

Mrs. A. H. Bokrud will entertain the members of the history section of the Ladies' Literary club at its next meeting, to be held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The program for the day will be "The Literature of the Reigns of Nero and Trajan," given by Mrs. H. W. Frame.

The Woman's league met last Monday at Unity hall, where an address was given by Judge Alexander McMaster on the "Enforcement of the Curfew Law." Miss Florence Jennings reported that she had

Miss Cameron announces to her friends and patrons that her dress making parlors are now located in connection with Walker's store—Mercantile annex. Her artistic ability and expert dress making has won a prestige in the circles of good dressers. A cordial invitation is extended to women who would be dressed in the elite of style to visit her newly opened parlors.

—20c Velocet flannels—one entire lot—about 100 patterns, in lengths from 2½ to 10 yards—sale—12½c.
—1,500 yards of dark dress percales, choice patterns, 31 inches wide, an extra value at 10c the yard—sale—7½c.
—High grade outing flannel, in gray checks and plaids and stripes, 27 inches wide—regular 10c outing—sale—the yard—7½c.

Walker's
CORNER 3rd SO. AND MAIN

2 Big Silk Sales Monday

50c and 60c

A silk sale that will astonish all Salt Lake—Silks in the most popular weaves and color effects sacrificed Monday at tremendous reductions.

Thousands of yards tabled Monday for your ready selection—the greatest silk bargain opportunity ever recorded in the annals of Salt Lake merchandising

No exchanges—no approvals—no samples—prices are reduced to such tremendous savings that the selling must be quick and enthusiastic. Be early at the counters Monday morning.

Sale Begins at 8:30 Sharp — COME

New Silks at

Fifty Cents the yard

Bengalines, etc. Silks worth up to 85c the yard—Monday for this sale. 50c

Rare Silk Weaves at

Sixty Cents the yard

—Genuine imported chiffon taffeta plaids in the beautiful Scotch and French Clans and lustrous color effects—worth $1.25 the yd.—also —Creme de chine Bordure, an elegant soft draping silk suitable for dressy waists and automobile scarfs—$1.00 and $1.25 qualities—also —The best American Liberties in the brilliant finish popular for street wear and evening gowns. $1.25 quality—also —Hundreds of yards of Messalines and Satin Souples in every new shade for street and evening wear. A silk quality that is known to every woman who wears silks—regular $1.00 and $1.25 the yard. The entire four above assortments Monday the yard—not $1.00 or $1.25—but. 60c

Style, Exclusiveness and Individuality

The Three Characteristics of Walker's Millinery that Portray the Artist

Monday we exhibit the elite of the millinery vogue for winter—whatever is authentic in style, shape, material, coloring or decoration is reflected in Walker's Millinery Department. From modest tailored street hats to the elaborate dress and evening creations they are as fashionable as the artist milliners of Paris and America can make them. Priced as moderately as reasonable merchandising will allow.

Millinery Dept. Annex.

Boys' Winter Overcoats The Jaunty Auto Style

Full length overcoats for boys in the jaunty new auto style, designed in the long, loose coat, finished with auto collar and cuffs. These are the newest of winter styles—made in mostly dark patterns; sizes from 3 years to 17 years. Priced from $5.00 to $10.00.

Boys' and Girls' Coat Sweaters—Special—98c

A Monday bargain in the juvenile department—boys' and girls' smart coat sweaters in all wool—white, gray, navy, cardinal, etc.; sizes from 3 years to 14 years. Special—98c.

Economy and Style are Features of This Suit Sale Monday

$32.50 to $35.00 Handsomely Tailored Cloth Suits

in Winter's Newest Modes
Special Offering $24.95

Economy in price is reflected in the reduction—style is portrayed in the handsome tailoring and perfect fit and finish of every suit assembled for this special offering. Women's fine long coat models and Parisian pleated skirt effect. Made of elegant mannish weaves in beautiful browns, grays, greens, blues, blacks and mixtures. $32.50 to $35.00, selected from our immense winter stock—$24.95.

Stylish Military Capes—$7.95

Modish for misses and fashionable for women—these new military capes. Made of broadcloths and kersey, in red, blue, green, street and evening shades. Trimmed with buttons and Persian bands. Special, $7.95.

Women's and Misses' New Winter Coats

The Newest Styles and Handsome Tailored Effects that Predominate the Coat Vogue— $13.95

Tailored modes are the elite for winter in the coat vogue. These are the handsomest of the new styles, made in the winter fabrics of coverts, chevots and mannish weaves, and featured in tans, greens, blues, blacks and mixtures. Special offering—$13.95.

HAMILTON'S SMART SHOP

Monday Only — One Day — A special showing of 150 long fur coats in seals, broadtails and all other furs, also beautiful fur sets; ½ off regular value; exceptional bargains for—

One Day Only

Specials this week. In our tailor-made department we offer some beautiful models for $22.50 to $40.00. Exceptional values.

Creations in evening gowns, dinner dresses and smart cloth dresses, $25.00 to $60.00.

Street coats and evening wraps in furs, velours and cloths, ranging in price from $20.00 up. New hats for street and dressy wear now in.

Hamilton's
CORRECT DRESS FOR WOMEN
216 SOUTH MAIN ST.

If there's better candy on the market than

Sweet's Society Chocolates

No one knows about it.

"Society" are pre-eminent.

SOLD BY ALL FIRST-CLASS DEALERS.

ordered 75,000 Red Cross Christmas stamps. A committee composed of Mrs. C. W. Watson, Mrs. Warren Benjamin and Mrs. P. A. Simpkins was appointed to petition the library board to keep the reading rooms open until 10 p. m. each night.

The current events section of the Ladies' Literary club will meet Nov. 5, and a discussion on the "comic supplement" will be led by Miss Katherine Page and Mrs. G. B. Stehl. Mrs. R. M. Stevenson will lead the discussion of the recent execution of Professor Ferrer in Spain.

The art section of the club will meet Nov. 4 at 12:15 at the club rooms, and a paper on "Cathedral Sculpture" will be given by Mrs. A. B. Gibson.

On Friday next a lecture will be given by Tom Kullbjorn, an Armanian, under the auspices of the Ladies' Literary club.

the meeting to be held at 2 o'clock, at the club rooms. The lecturer is on his way to New York and is endeavoring to educate people to recognize the true Oriental rugs.

The Browning section of the Ladies' Literary club was delightfully entertained at a luncheon at the home of Mrs. A. J. Gorham Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Elmer Jones gave a resume of the poet "Sordello." The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Edward Rosenbaum, in East South Temple street. Following the lecture of Senator R. L. Taylor Wednesday evening, he was entertained at the home of Frank B. Robinson in the Cummings apartments.

The Monday Night club met with Miss Rosalind Pollock in the Kensington apartments and enjoyed an illustrated talk given by Professor Byron Cummings on his summer's work among the ancient cliff dwellings of southern Utah.